Choice of Two for 2019 Board of Review

This year's Board of Review training offers two choices: 1) How to Conduct a Hearing, and 2) How to Conduct a First Meeting.

The training is in DVD format and includes a written examination which the videos reviews with answers. You need to view only one of the two videos for certification.

Over 840 Board of Review training DVDs have already been sold to Wisconsin municipalities. Ordering information is at <https://lgc.uwex.edu>.

Freeburg named Distinguished Lecturer, Kim Moves to New Opportunity

Yunji Kim, Local Government Budget and Finance Specialist will be leaving the Local Government Center for an assistant professor position at Seoul National University (Korea). Her teaching about local government budgets and her research on fiscal stress have been invaluable.

Busy Season for Distance Education

The Local Government Center wrapped up its three distance education series for the 2018-2019 season: Local Government Issues, Challenges and Strategies; Local Land Use Planning and Zoning; and Local Government Essentials. As part of the "Essentials" series, a two-part webinar focused on Alcohol Beverage Regulation and Licensing continued to be one of our most popular programs with 127 officials attending both sessions. Recorded versions of the following sessions can be ordered on USB drives.
